CITROËN C3 PLURIEL

Versatility, individuality and practicality... it's a winning combination

The C3 Pluriel - a car that's as versatile and individual as you are. OK, you're really tempted. But hang on a minute. Don't let your heart rule your head. What about equipment? What about comfort? What about safety? What about the practicalities and all those details that really make a difference?

Sorted. One of the first things you'll notice is just how roomy the C3 Pluriel really is. In fact, there's more space than many other cars in its class so it really is a true 4-seater.

C3 Pluriel benefits from a whole host of active and passive safety features. For starters, there's the responsive and stable road holding complemented by ABS with Electronic Brakeforce Distribution (EBD) and Emergency Braking Assistance (EBA). The speed-variable power assisted steering and automatically activated hazard warning lights in the event of sudden deceleration. And, if the worst should happen, the reinforced body shell, protective roof arches and four airbags could make all the difference.

Now comes the really serious decision of the day. Is it to be the Panoramic Saloon or the Cabriolet? Or perhaps the Spider? But don't get too hung up on it. After all, if you change your mind, the C3 Pluriel changes too.

1 The body colour flows into the interior too

2 Even storage can be stylish

The SensoDrive sensation

Does the comfort and relaxation of driving an automatic appeal? But what about the enjoyment and pure pleasure of fingertip gear changes that comes with a manual gearbox? It can all be a bit of a dilemma.

The good news is that now with the C3 Pluriel 1.6i 16V you don't have to choose. Because with the SensoDrive paddle shift, five speed sequential gearbox, you can have both.

So whatever your mood and whether it's urban driving with all the stops and starts or motoring out on the open road, you can choose automatic or manual mode. And really get the maximum from your driving experience.

Accessories you won't want to be without

Enhance your C3 Pluriel with Citroën's wide range of Accessories, designed specifically for your vehicle. Enjoy high-quality in-car entertainment, personalise your C3 Pluriel's appearance, or add to its convenience, storage and safety features.
